

Donald Joseph Vorous

October 16, 1934 – June 11, 2021

Resident of Danville, CA

Donald Joseph Vorous passed away peacefully on June 11, 2021 after a battle with pancreatic cancer. Donald grew up in San Leandro, CA and was 1 of 3 siblings. His parents were Joseph and Zeta Vorous.

Donald graduated from San Jose State University and then did service with US Air Force, which he was later honorably discharged from. Donald later received a Business Degree in Finance and Accounting from San Francisco State University. Donald had a very successful career working in finance for Lockheed Martin Corporation.

Donald had a quest to live life to the fullest. He was always up for an adventure. He shared many great memories with his friends and family including trips to Bear Valley, Lake Tahoe and the California wine country.

in retirement he traveled the world with his wife including trips to Europe, South America, Hawaii and Cabo San Lucas. Donald greatly enjoyed spending time at his second home in Vail, Colorado. He was the President of the Bachelor Springs Home Owners Association for 2+ years. He loved hiking and skiing the Colorado mountains and never missed the Vail Oktoberfest. Donald was an active member of the Danville Sons in Retirement club. Donald's greatest pleasure was being surrounded by his family.

Donald is survived by his beloved wife of 61 years, Charlene and his three devoted children, Brent Vorous (Stacey), Scott Vorous (Darla) and Robyn Mattern (John); and 7 grandchildren, Samantha Vorous, Ryan Vorous, Grant Vorous, Troy Vorous, Ashley Vorous, Reese Mattern and John Mattern. He also leaves behind his sister Virginia of San Diego, CA and many extended relatives.
